It's been a brilliant week at school this week with St Piran's celebrations. The children all came dressed in black and white and sang Cornwall My Home in assembly.

Girls Hockey Competition Match Report

The Girls Hockey competition last Friday showcased an impressive display of skill, teamwork, and determination from teams including, Truro High, Truro Prep, Alverton, St Hillarys and St Ives. The weather was quite challenging and at times the sun was shining and others the horizontal hail had us hiding in the dugouts!

Throughout the competition, it was evident that the girls' skills had significantly improved, a testament to their dedication and hard work during training sessions. Every player contributed to the overall success of the team, and their growth was noticeable with each passing match.

In the final game of the competition, our team truly shone, securing a well-deserved victory with a commendable score of 3-0 against Alverton. The highlight of the game was the exceptional goal-scoring prowess displayed by Lara and Ava, who netted two goals with an excellent assist from Nina.

The entire team played well, with Lily and Immy creating a strong defence, Maren, Skye, Nina, and Georgia showcasing their improved skills and contributing to the team's overall success.

Special recognition goes to Myla for her outstanding goalkeeping. Myla's reflexes, agility, and strategic decision-making played a pivotal role in keeping the opposing team at bay. Her exceptional performance between the posts safeguarded the team's lead and secured the win.

Jessica also deserves commendation for her unwavering dedication and leadership on the field. Her strategic plays and speed down the wing were an excellent addition to our team.

The Girls Hockey competition was a resounding success for our team. The girls' collective effort, improved skills, and outstanding performances, especially from Lara, Ava, Myla, and Jessica, reflect the team's commitment to excellence. The entire team, coaches, and supporters can take pride in a well-fought tournament and bring on the next one!

Trenance football match

Children from Trenance were invited to play a football match with our Yr 2 pupils this week.

They all played so well and behaved brilliantly.
